Beau Pritchard beaupritchard@gmail.com

Available for Private or Semi-Private Lessons /// $50/hour

Beau Pritchard has been coaching tennis at all different levels for the last 6 years. Firstly, he taught back at his home country club of Pecan Plantation where he also trained for 5 years prior. After leaving Pecan, he began teaching at Ridglea Country Club where he stayed until he left for College. During this time he was training at Texas Christian University with the desire to take his playing to the next level. Beau was a Texas top 100 junior and nationally ranked player. His favorite shots are the topspin forehand, and a variety of serves. Once the time came, Beau took his abilities to Colorado Christian University where he played tennis and is studying Pre-Medicine with aspirations to attend graduate school for Prosthetics. Outside of the tennis court Beau enjoys skiing, the outdoors, and has played many other sports which he finds useful to apply on the court when coaching players who play multiple sports.
