

LAKWOOD PARK TENNIS CENTER INSTRUCTORS

Brenden Sullinger brenden@lakewoodparktennis.com

Brenden has been with Hitman Sports Management since 2013 working at the Pueblo Tennis center, a Southern Colorado club. There he started to help manage as well as develop a coaching style focused on efficiency. While he played collegiately at Colorado State University-Pueblo he only started at the age of 14. Showing that you don't always have to start very young to be a collegiate player. He is now focused on growing the game in the Lakewood community, and continuing to make LPTC a vibrant facility.

Marianne Page

mevangelista3@yahoo.com

IC

Marianne grew up playing tennis with her family and it became a great source of fun for her. Tennis retained that sense of fun throughout her playing and coaching career. Marianne played for Metropolitan State University at the D2 level for four years. She played mostly at the #2 doubles and #2 singles positions for her team. She coached in Brighton Colorado, her hometown, for 8 summers before joining the Lakewood Park Tennis Center team. She loved sharing the joy that she has for tennis with her Brighton students and hopes to do the same for her students in Lakewood.

Ryder Searle

searle777@gmail.com

Ryder has been playing tennis since he was four-years-old. He grew up in Pagosa Springs, Colorado and became passionate about tennis around the age of 12. He began to teach and coach a few junior players in his hometown in high school. He played competitive high school tennis and then competed at the collegiate level at Colorado Christian University. Ryder also runs cross country and track for Colorado Christian University and he is pursuing his Masters in Special Education. Ryder started teaching tennis at Lakewood Park Tennis Center about a year ago, and he really enjoys working with all levels of tennis players. He loves to share his passion for the sport with others and he desires everyone to get better while having fun. Off the tennis court, Ryder enjoys running, trail running, climbing, and most other sports that are outside. He loves to be active and loves to share his passion for movement with others.
